ROTARY YOUTH LEADERSHIP AWARDS CAMP
Preparations

CELL PHONE POLICIES:

RYLA will allow students, without an alternate method, to use their cell phones as cameras and alarm clocks only under these strict conditions:

1. There is a zero tolerance policy for use of any device for taking photos or filming during a class, within a bathroom or in the cabins. Any student caught violating this policy will be required to show executive staff their photo albums and video albums. Any unauthorized media will be erased immediately without question. Students violating this policy may be sent home at the discretion of RYLA staff.
2. There is a zero tolerance policy for using phones for any purpose other than:
 - Taking photos at the activities noted below
 - As a wake-up alarm
 - As an audio portion of a talent show act.
3. Violator's phones will be given to Admin for storage and returned after graduation.

Photos can be taken only during the following events providing the student is not creating distractions or creating a hazard:

- Thursday night Carnival Activities following Keynote Speaker.
- Friday Night Talent Show following Keynote Speaker.
- Saturday Night Dance following Keynote Speaker.
- Sunday morning Double Back farewells.

Phone calls or texting to parents can be made in emergencies only. Permission must be gained from an adult staff member before placing a call or returning a text. The staff member is to monitor the call, or text, to ensure the use is legitimate and excessive time is not spent.
